

4th of July Celebration

This year's 4th of July Celebration will take place on Monday the 4th of July beginning with a parade at noon. The parade route will start in the north parking lot of the High School and exit to N. Nash Street. It will continue south on Nash Street until it reaches Main Street where it will turn right onto Main and proceed through the downtown area to Miller Park.

There will be food, refreshments, kid's games and music from 12:30 p.m. until 3:30 p.m. The Legion Auxiliary will have an apple pie and ice cream social. Carl Mann will again be doing his face painting. Antique tractors, farm equipment and cars will be on display.

This year's event will host a decorated bike parade and a dog parade. Bikes will be awarded for the best decorated bikes in ages 4-7 and 8-11 years old in both boys and girls categories.

If you are interested in entering your classic car, antique tractor or a float please contact John Wiesner at 920-779-4585. If you wish to enter the bike or dog parade please contact Jane Olk at 920-660-4402. The bike and dog parade entry blank can be picked up at Donaldson's Coffee Shop at 300 S. Nash Street in Hortonville.

Home Alone and Babysitting Safety Classes at the Opera House July 14th - 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Designed for pre-teens ready to stay home alone or for those interested in babysitting - this is a great class for participants ages 10-16. Class includes four hours of CPR instruction (American Heart Association) and four hours of home alone/babysitter safety. The program is taught by Michael Cotter, who has been a paramedic for 29 years and EMS instructor for the last 20 years. Co-instructors include a nursing professor from the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh and a paramedic.

Price: $45 resident; $50 non-resident
(no refunds - limited space)

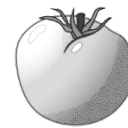

Email office@vohortonville.com or call 920-779-6011 to register.

YMCA Classes in the Opera House

The Fox West YMCA will again be offering classes this fall in the Opera House. Watch Facebook and hortonvillewi.org for dates.

CPR and AED classes: Gold Cross Ambulance will return to Hortonville this winter for FREE CPR/AED training. The classes are open to the public. We ask that participants bring an item for donation to the Hortonville Community Food Pantry. Watch for upcoming dates.

Hortonville Farmer's Market

The Hortonville Farmer's Market has been relocated to the parking lot of Donaldson's Coffee Shop at:

300 S Nash Street

The market will run for 12 consecutive weeks beginning Thursday June 23rd and ending Thursday September 8th. Vendors will set up from 3:00 p.m. until 6:30 p.m. Fresh produce, farm fresh eggs, baked goods, handmade crafts and maple syrup are just some of the items available for sale.

VILLAGE COMMITTEE OPENINGS

Want to be more involved in your local village government? Now is your chance!

There are openings on several Village committees where you can lend your expertise and knowledge. Call the Administration Office at 779-6011 or Village President Traci Martens at 779-0484 for more information on the various committees and see where your skills can be best put to use.

We look forward to hearing from you!